

Questionnaire for Self-Assessment of Ministry in the Congregation of Holy Cross

- 1) What indications exist in this ministry that allow us to affirm that it follows the charisms of the Congregation of Holy Cross?
- 2) How is this ministry concerned with the formation of its members and that they be open to a process of conversion and renewal to the new demands of the Church and the Congregation?
- 3) What are the reasons why you enjoy being part of this ministry, and why do you feel that your commitment to the Lord has grown in recent years?
- 4) What do you think should be changed or renewed in order to give better witness to Jesus Christ, to his message of mercy and his commitment to justice and those on the margins of society, to the care for creation and the strengthening of the family?
- 5) What are the achievements and weaknesses that this ministry has administratively and financially, and what would be important to correct in the coming years?
- 6) What real possibility does this ministry have of inviting young people to vocations in the consecrated life and priesthood, and what else should be done so that in the future the Congregation can count on religious personnel to attend to this ministry?
- 7) Is there anything else that you think is important for the Congregation and its authorities to know about the functioning of this work?
